

Sermon Discussion – led by Graham Clark and Jeff Shields

During the 11am hour there is an open forum in the Fellowship Hall for further reflection and discussion about the morning's sermon using an additional essay and thought-provoking questions provided by the pastor. Invariably there is lively interaction as we seek to apply the message to our lives.

College and Career – led by Jim Palmer and Jim Patton (Room 110)

This is a class designed as a place for fellowship and learning for those in their 20s (or so), currently studying the book of Revelation.

Newcomers' Class – led by Steve Meyerhoff and Kevin Ball (TBD)

Are you new to Grace and/or interested in learning more about us? We will meet for the four Sundays in March to explore the history of Grace, our beliefs, our denominational connections, and our values and ministries. This class is a prerequisite for church membership, but there is no membership obligation for you to come and learn with us.

Grace Steps during the week:

Monday – Men's Bible Study and Fellowship: Chasing after Meaning: a study in the book of Ecclesiastes, 7:00-8:30 pm at the church. Begins on January 11.

Wednesday – an exploration of the book, Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross - a series of devotional readings in preparation for Easter, 7:00-8:00pm at the church. Led by Jeff Shields. Begins on January 20 and meets in the Library.

Thursday – Women's Bible Study on the wisdom literature of the Old Testament (Proverbs, Job, Psalms, Ecclesiastes and Song of Solomon) meets at 9:30 am and at 7:00 pm at the church. Both studies are led by April Gott. Begins on January 14.

GRACE STEPS:

“...in step with Christ and in step with one another...”

GRACE STEPS:

“...in step with Christ and in step with one another...”

The Adult Discipleship Ministry of Grace Evangelical Presbyterian Church

Winter/Spring 2010 Schedule:

(January 24 – May 30)

9:15 am Sunday Morning:

Women's Bible Study – led by Valerie McFadden (Room 107)

The women's class encourages each other through sharing our concerns, through prayer, and through the study of God's Word. This spring the study will be in the book of First Corinthians.

Romans – led by Fred Reynolds (Fellowship Hall)

This class is designed as a place for in-depth Bible study and fellowship for singles and couples. This spring, the group will continue their tour of the Apostle Paul's letter to the church at Rome.

11:00 am Sunday Morning:

Church History: Reformation to Revolution (1500-1789) – led by Ken Abbott and Kieffer Warman (Room 112)

The continuing story of the church from the remarkable days of the Protestant Reformation until the late 18th century. Major emphasis will be given to the people and events that God used to guide and keep his church. Those new to the class are always welcome to join in.

The Pentateuch: Genesis—Deuteronomy – led by Kevin Ball and David Roth (Room 201 - Library)

Our Bibles begin with these books which tell the story of God's activity in human history from the creation of the universe to the establishment of the people of Israel to their preparation to enter the Promised Land. We will discover how these opening books set the stage for all of God's redemptive work and point to a coming Messiah.